

Something You Need to Know? Ask a Joe! Webinar Recordings Now on TEGGNet!

Do you have questions about NFPA 70E safety or issues facing the industry or your business, but missed Empower Training Services' first two "Ask a Joe" webinars?

Don't worry – Empower Training Services' popular webinar series is now available on video, under the Webinar Series section of the Downloads tab on TEGGNet!

"Ask a Joe" is a webinar series, hosted by Empower Training Services, giving participants a chance to ask questions directly to Joe Gierlach, ABM Franchising Group Vice President of Technical Support and Training, and Joe DeMonte, ABM Franchising Group Director of Technical Training and Support.

So far, the series features two webinars – "The OSHA and NFPA 70E Relationship," and "Assessing Risk for an Assigned Electrical Task."

Each webinar features a main topic related to NFPA 70E topics, followed by a question and answer period with the host.

The next "Ask a Joe" webinar is tentatively scheduled for November 13.

If you have questions you would like a Joe to address, send them to Jenn Cimarolli at jenn.cimarolli@abm.com prior to the webinar.
