

Longtime Principal, Vice President at Shawver & Son, Inc., Retires

After nearly 30 years in the electrical industry, Principal and Vice President Mike Mande of Shawver & Sons, Inc., in Oklahoma City, Okla., retired on August 31, 2017.

Mande started his electrical career as an apprentice in 1988, before leaving WOEJATC in Oklahoma City in 1994, when he joined the TEGG Service Department at Shawver & Sons, Inc. as a Journeyman Wireman.

In 2007, Mande became a General Manager at Shawver & Sons, Inc., until he was named Vice President and Principal in 2010.

Along with working for Shawver & Sons, Inc., Mande was also a member of IBEW 1141 for 30 years. During his career, he helped grow the TEGG Service Dept. at Shawver & Sons, Inc., into an $11 million business.

General Manager John Sloan said Mande was an inspiration and helped motivate him to further succeed within the company.

"I really appreciate the spark that Mike saw in me," Sloan said. "It was something I didn't know existed and I thank God every day for the opportunity!"

Sloan said he and everyone at Shawver & Sons, Inc., wishes Mande a happy retirement.

Want more TEGG news and announcements? Stay up-to-date with TEGG Mobile by visiting TEGG.com/news from your computer or mobile device.

Longtime Shawver & Son, Inc., Principal and Vice President Mike Mande (right), pictured with TEGG AVP Jason Huber (left), retired on August 31, 2017 after nearly 30 years in the electrical industry.