

Training Recaps: Learning to Lead with TEGG University in Pittsburgh

Several Linc Service and TEGG franchise participated in Leadership I at TEGG University's Pittsburgh Campus in June.

TEGG University hosted the two-day training on June 13-14.

In any organization, and at any career level, strong and stable leadership qualities will help set your business apart from others in your industry. With that in mind, TEGG University offers participants a great opportunity to strengthen their leadership qualities, as well as those of their team members.

This insightful, informative, and inspirational learning session introduced participants to leadership by using a proven Leadership Model as a framework, with realistic examples, activities, and role-plays from actual TEGG businesses.

The participants included:

- Scott Heinz of Bassett Mechanical
- Jennifer Jamerson of ABM Franchising Group
- Jake LaMalfa of Bassett Mechanical
- Alex Nason of ABM Building Services – Richmond, VA
- Jason Parfitt of ABM Building Services – Baltimore, MD
- Brad Pedersen of ABM Franchising Group
- Susan Ritchey of ABM Franchising Group
- Tyler Schultz of ABM Franchising Group
