United Mechanical Establishes AirTemp Mechanical Service in Northwest Arkansas

Springdale, Ark. – October 27, 2010 – Expanding their market reach, United Mechanical, Inc. of Oklahoma City, Okla., has established AirTemp Mechanical Service, Inc. in northwest Arkansas. AirTemp Mechanical Service, located in Springdale, Ark., is a commercial heating, air conditioning and refrigeration contractor, and will be the sole provider of Linc Service in this market. Linc Service was previously offered by L&L Mechanical Services of Springdale.

United Mechanical is a full service mechanical contracting company which offers Linc Service agreements, controls and equipment retrofits and self funding improvements to customers in the respective markets of Oklahoma. These markets include a majority of the western region of the state, as well as Wilbarger, Baylor, Wichita, Archer and Clay counties in north central Texas.

The establishment of AirTemp expands the company's reach into northwest Arkansas. The counties serviced by AirTemp include Baxter, Benton, Boone, Carroll, Crawford, Franklin, Johnson, Logan, Madison, Marion, Newton, Pope, Searcy, Sebastian, Washington and Yell counties. Donohue Commercial Service of Tulsa, Okla. is also a part of the United Mechanical family and provide their service offerings to customers in the eastern region of Oklahoma.

"It is the goal of everyone in the United Mechanical family to bring a high level of innovative and professional service to the businesses of northwest Arkansas," said J.R. Hile, President and General Manager of United Mechanical. "Our purpose is to serve our customers in a manner that allows them to focus on growing and managing their businesses by eliminating the need to concern themselves with their heating and air conditioning systems."
